

Brook Green Supply Limited Modern Slavery statement - 2020

This statement is made pursuant to section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. Brook Green Supply Limited is committed to ensuring that slavery is not present in our business, or supply chain. We have introduced and will continue to develop policy and procedures to ensure that our due diligence to ensure that slavery does not enter the business or supply chain.

Our Business

We are committed to providing energy supply solutions to Industrial & Commercial consumers across the UK. Aside from supplying 100% REGO-backed power, we are committed to helping customers optimise their energy supply in the context of a grid increasingly characterised by intermittent generation. We have 43 employees, and operate in the United Kingdom, supplying gas and power solely within the UK.

Our Approach

We have a zero-tolerance approach to slavery and human trafficking. We operate a number of internal policies to ensure that modern slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within our business or supply chain, and that we are conducting business in an ethical and transparent manner.

- Our recruitment policy ensures that every member of staff's eligibility to work in the UK is checked.
- Our Anti-bribery and Corruption Policy and Code of Ethics ensure staff are committed to the highest standards and good industry practice.

Risk Assessment and Due Diligence

We understand modern slavery risks and are committed to ensuring that this is not taking place in our own business or supply chains.

We reduce our risk by operating in the UK and provide gas and power solely within the UK. Our suppliers are primarily the exchanges and large liquidity providers. We do background checks on new and potential clients to ensure that they have not been convicted of offences relating to modern slavery. We regularly review our existing clients to ensure that the information we hold is current and reliable.

Our Commitment

Brook Green Supply Limited is committed to ensuring that slavery and human trafficking does not enter our business or supply chain. We will continue to raise awareness of modern slavery through staff training so that employees are confident in spotting the signs. We will continue to ensure that our client records are up to date, and thoroughly background check new clients.

Approval

This statement has been formally approved by Christian Coles, Director

Signed:

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "C. Coles", written over a horizontal line.

Dated: 19/02/2020